Wolverine Winner, Bridget Murphy

[Editor's Note: For those of you who have not had the pleasure of meeting Bridget Murphy, she resides on Old Homestead Highway in Richmond with her husband, Rob, and a well-loved collection of pets. Bridget is artistic, practices Tai-Chi, and recently won Wolverine's Women's Month Award for having the "grit and tenacity to forge her own path" in the face of cancer. Please read Pam Bielunis' nomination letter to learn more about this amazing woman. Congratulations, Bridget!]

*Bridget models her 'swag.'
She received a $200 Wolverine gift card, too!*

Award-Winning Letter to Wolverine, Nominating Bridget Murphy

[First, let me say that I have permission from Bridget to share her information]. This may be a different type of nomination, but Bridget is truly an inspirational woman. About a year ago at 42 years old, Bridget was diagnosed with ovarian cancer. She has undergone chemo and major surgery. She makes every step of her journey a positive one, and by doing so helps others deal with their situations and move forward. She had to give up her job as a nursing supervisor at our local hospital. She has taken this situation and put her time and energy into improving herself, leading by example while educating and inspiring many women. She made changes in her lifestyle including exercise, healthy eating habits, helping local residents, and volunteering to drive others to appointments. She has walked miles and miles in all kinds of weather to support charities especially ones involving animals or cancer. Her strength, grit, dedication, and motivation are contagious. Her ultimate goal is to educate women to be aware of any subtle signs or symptoms so they may be able to diagnose this type of cancer early and prolong their lives. Bridget is truly an inspirational woman, beautiful on the inside and out. She exemplifies the qualities necessary to be an excellent candidate for a Wolverine Award. Thank you for considering her for one of your awards of Wolverine gear.

Richmond Clean-Up Days in the 1970s

Ruth Blais Thompson

I grew up in the small town of Richmond in the 1970s. It was special, and as kids we didn't know or understand that, we just knew that we had fun together doing practically anything. One of the benefits of growing up in a small town like Richmond [I think the population back then might have been 700] was that you knew everyone! The 4-Corner's and the store seemed to be the natural meeting spot to catch up with neighbors who lived more than a walk or bike ride away. My dad, George Blais, was like a big kid and loved to do things, not only with his own kids, but with all the kids in town. Dad would often pile what seemed like all the town's kids in the back of his ¾ ton pick-up truck and head to the dirt roads in town to go sliding or in the summer to the town beach for an afternoon swim. Mike York, who grew up in town with us, recently shared his memory with me of my dad getting a bunch of kids together in town for a football game on the weekends in the yard next to the store... good memories.

I have a memory of Richmond's Spring Clean-Up Day. That would have been another time that Dad would create enjoyment out of work, so we didn't look at it as an arduous undertaking, but, instead, as just a lot of fun to be all hanging out together. I found a few old photos of one of those Richmond Clean-Up Days, dated May 1970. It made me smile to see old childhood friends: some who are still with us and some who, sadly, are not; some who still live in town and some who have moved on. I think Dad purposefully had us pose in front of the $100 fine for littering sign with a full truck of collected garage because he thought it was funny! I'm not sure how we got all the trash and all of us to the dump, but we even have evidence from the picture that we were there to unload everything we had picked up! Notice in the photo most are holding up beer bottles! I guess that was funny back then, too. Clean-Up Day in the 1970s was a fun time...and I know it still can be. It's bigger than a neighborhood; it's about community.

I'm going to try to name everyone I know in the pictures. There are some faces I remember, but can't put a name to? Maybe some of you reading this will know who they are? Maybe it's you!

KEEP AMERICA

A Nice Surprise

Dear Editor,

I'm in town and at this time of year [April], I usually walk the nearby roads and pick up the winter's accumulation of beer cans and other trash. I typically collect a big black trash bagful between Camp Wiyaka and the lower edge of the "Schoolhouse Field" at the junction of Lang and Bullock Roads. Perhaps 3/4 mile to a mile.

Although there is a lot of tree debris left from this winter's savage storms, there is virtually no trash. The two or three cans that were there were clearly new arrivals. Somebody deserves a big thank you for the clean-up.

Shaun Bennett

Big Thank You

Recently, someone dumped a lot of trash at the end of Whipple Hill and Rt 119. Alex Leduc, our neighbor, took it upon himself to clean it all up and throw it away. I have seen him many times picking up trash on Whipple Hill and I really appreciate it. It's nice to have such a good neighbor. If we could only keep people from dumping it on the side of the road, that would be nice!

A New Deputy! Karen O'Brien, Town Clerk

After a short time without a deputy, I am pleased to announce that Cheryl Brake has been hired as the Deputy Clerk. She started on March 7th, jumping in to help with the town election, where she observed the voting process and was involved with the MRSD (school) ballot machine reconciliation. What an auspicious beginning!

Cheryl has lived in Richmond for 12+ years, moving here from Marlborough. She is a New Hampshire native from Manchester, where her father worked for the city in the Cemetery Department. Her husband, Harry, who died two years ago, was a familiar figure in the Keene automotive scene. He worked at Nissan and Ford dealerships as Parts and Service Director. Sharing her home are her two grown children, Steve and Tanya, and their children, Liam, Hunter, and Mckenzie. Oh, and we can't forget the six dogs who reside there, as well (four Newfie pups, plus two Labs).

Cheryl "retired" from Smith Medical in Keene, having worked third shift for almost twenty years. She is happily adjusting to her new time schedule and is proving invaluable in her duties as Deputy. She likes cooking and baking and loves to read and spend time with her grandchildren. Now that she has more "free" time, she hopes to do some traveling and enjoy her time in Richmond.

The Elaine Moriarty Volunteer of the Year Awards

We are pleased to announce, after being put on hold for several years due to COVID, the winners of Elaine Moriarty Volunteer of the Year Award: Roxanne Hubert for 2021 and Dixie Gurian for 2022. Roxanne and Dixie were honored for their years of service at the Library's Volunteer Tea on May 6th with certificates given by the Chair of the Board of Trustees, Becky Haskins. Roxanne's and Dixie's names are also inscribed on a plaque which hangs in the Library. The Trustees and staff of the Library are incredibly grateful to all our volunteers who help in so many ways. If you are looking for a way to get involved, there are lots of opportunities in both the Library and the Town Archives. Stop by, give us a call, or drop us an email!
